Lecture Series Held

THE 17th edition of the Saint Shree Dnyaneshwar-Tukaram Endowment Lecture Series was held at the World Peace Centre at MIT Alandi on November 24. President of the Akhil Bharatiya Marathi Sahitya Sammelan, Nagnath Kottapalle, said, "Saint Dnyaneshwar first accepted tradition but along with that he developed a philosophy, which was totally new for the society. He preached equality and brotherhood among people and said that it is the basic requirement of a universal culture." The week-long lecture series has been organised with a UNESCO chair programme for Culture of Peace and was presided over by SN Pathan, vice-president, Indian Council for Cultural Relations (ICCR), Delhi.
